Guest Chambers

The Admiral Dewey Inn features 10 guest chambers. All are decorated with Victorian antiques and a variety of carved headboards, claw-footed tables, brass beds and more. Eight of the rooms have a full private bath. Five rooms have ocean views, three have a desk.

Amenities

Complimentary use of beach chairs, beach towels, umbrellas and bicycles. Internet access. We offer hot and cold beverages throughout the day.

Common Rooms

The Public Parlor has comfortable antique furniture and has the perfect atmosphere for lingering over that cup of coffee or catching up on local happenings in the newspaper.

Breakfast

A complimentary "continental plus" breakfast is not to be missed. You'll be served in our comfortable Dining Room featuring the Inn's pride and joy-the grand Victorian tile fireplace! For our breakfast, we take advantage of local farmers by providing you with fresh fruits and breakfast items.

Things to Do

South Kingstown Town Beach offers a playground, picnic tables, grills, and showers, and doesn't fill as quickly as the nearby state beaches.

Town Beach a block away

Theatre-by-the-Sea
A local favorite and summer experience you shouldn't miss. This historic theatre and playhouse has provided entertainment to the community for over 80 years.

South County is rich with many festivals, star gazing at the Frosty Drew Observatory, kayaking, music events, seal tours, deep sea fishing, the South County Bike Path, Truston Pond Natural Wildlife Refuge, bowling, rock climbing, roller skating and more.

Inn History

George and Etta Champlin built "The Dewey Cottage" as a 15 bedroom family style, seaside boarding house hotel in 1898. The "Dewey Cottage" offered its' guests, "good rooms and table board, all modern improvements with stable, pleasant location, good surf bathing, terms reasonable."

And we still offer that today.
